

Summer chillers @Godrej Nature's Basket

Enjoy this summer with bartending classes by 'Tulleeho', exotic mixers and lots more 13th March, 2012: Rising temperature & scorching heat in summer can sap energy levels making you feel dull and dehydrated. Hence, the best way to beat the heat is to indulge into colorful squashes, juices and mocktails to keep you refreshed and rejuvenated. All this is of course taken care of by Godrej Nature's Basket. The world food store once again comes to the rescue of food enthusiasts with some exciting instore bartending workshops by 'Tulleeho', the provider of beverage education and training, and a whole new range of juices and mixers to play along with.

An overwhelming range of monin mixers, natural Snapples, the fruity Belvoir and a host of other juices and mixers are available at the store to prepare some refreshing summer drinks and mocktails/cocktails which are available in a variety of flavors like Green Mint, Passion Fruit, Orange, Cranberry, Green Lemon etc. And if this is not enough, the store also offers a 20% discount on the Tulleeho book of cocktails

So if you like playing host to parties this summer, the bartending workshops are just what you need to attend!

Juggle the glasses, mix well, get fresh & get high!
